

EXTRA RACING AT CLIFTON.

A Good Race Gives Supervisor the Buffalo Handicap.

Dalesman, a Favorite, Wins the Opening Dash.

Donald and Monte Cristo Are Also Winners.

RACE TRACK, CLIFTON, N. J., Nov. 5.—A large crowd and an excellent track were the features of Clifton today. The betting was lively and considerable money was in the crowd.

To-morrow the racing will be continued, and as there are six races on the programme the first race will be started at 1.30 p. m.

FIRST RACE.
Purse $200, for two-year-olds; three-quarters of a mile.
Dalesman, 115..... (Bender) 2
Sonia, 115..... (Harris) 2
John Arkins, 115..... (Barton) 0
Aftermath, 115..... (Harris) 0
Betting—John Arkins, 8 to 1; Dalesman, 5 to 1; Sonia, 5 to 1; Aftermath, 5 to 1.
The race—A start was made at the first attempt, John Arkins going on in the lead, 50-50 and Sonia following. By the time the half-mile pole was reached 50-50 had the lead by a head and Sonia was running next, with Aftermath third.
To the stretch Dalesman shot to the front and won by a length, with 50-50 second, four lengths ahead of Sonia. Time—1.15. Mutuels paid 10; place, 2; 75; 50-50 paid $2.50.

SECOND RACE.
Purse $200, selling allowance; one mile.
Donald, 120..... (Day) 1
Hester, 120..... (Berge) 2
Hermione, 115..... (Camp) 2
Kismet, 110..... (Cullen) 0
Belmont, 105..... (Harris) 0
Broughton, 110..... (Harris) 0
Trinidad, 105..... (Bender) 0
Crocket, 105..... (Cullen) 0
Betting—Donald, 8 to 1; Kismet, 4 to 1; Hester, 5 to 1; Belmont, 5 to 1; Broughton, 5 to 1; Trinidad, 5 to 1; Crockett, 5 to 1; 50-50, 5 to 1.
The race—A good start was made with Donald in the lead and Hester next.
To the stretch Donald shot out followed by Hester and Hermione. Donald kept the lead and won by three lengths, with Hester one and a half lengths ahead of Hermione. Time—1.45. Mutuels paid 10; place, 10; 50-50 paid $2.50.

THIRD RACE.
Purse $200, seven-eighths of a mile.
Monte Cristo, 115..... (Meehan) 1
Hermione, 115..... (Camp) 2
Harwood, 110..... (Cullen) 0
Mellanchin, 110..... (Cullen) 0
Fryer, 110..... (Harris) 0
Wheat, 115..... (Harris) 0
Betting—Monte Cristo, 4 to 1; Hermione, 5 to 1; Harwood, 5 to 1; Mellanchin, 5 to 1; Fryer, 5 to 1; Wheat, 5 to 1.
The race—Monte Cristo had the lead in the stretch, with Harwood following close. Monte Cristo won by two lengths, with Harwood a neck behind. Time—1.30. Mutuels paid 10; place, 10; 50-50 paid $2.50.

FOURTH RACE.
Purse $200, Buffalo Handicap; mile and an eighth.
Hermione, 115..... (Camp) 1
Bright Eyes, 105..... (Cullen) 2
Larkin, 115..... (Harris) 2
Amos, 110..... (Camp) 0
Betting—Bright Eyes, 5 to 1; Hermione, 5 to 1; Larkin, 5 to 1; Amos, 5 to 1.
The race—Hermione won by two lengths, with Bright Eyes a neck behind. Time—1.50. Mutuels paid 10; place, 10; 50-50 paid $2.50.

FIFTH RACE.
Purse $200, one mile.
Won by Moomouth, Pericles second, Barnum third. Time—1.45.
Mutuels paid 10; place, 10; 50-50 paid $2.50.

NAKEDVILLE, Nov. 5.—The races to-day resulted as follows:

First Race.—Roi d'Or first, McBowling second, Lucy Howard third. Time—1.17. Three-quarters of a mile.
Second Race.—Kee-Wee first, Castaway second, Dock Wick third. Time—1.10. Five and a half furlongs.
Third Race.—Erebus first, Climax second, Autocrat third. Time—1.44. One mile.

TURNING OUT REPUBLICAN SPIES.

James F. Corney, Who Knows Col. Murphy, Escorted from North Carolina.

REPUBLICAN, N. O., Nov. 5.—The World's readers were informed last night that another of the suspected Republican spies has been found here and would be escorted out of the State. This man gave his address as James F. Corney, at 57 Day street, New York City. He said he could give references there, and specially named Col. Murphy, of New York City, who, he said, was State Senator and candidate for Governor. Corney refused to make any confession. He came here to see Crawford and Bedell. He called for them. He denied this, but later, as positive proof was brought, made clean breast of it. He is the same man who was driven out of the town of Clinton Thursday. He will be shadowed all the way to New York.

Canada Out for Harrison.

MONTREAL, Nov. 5.—The Montreal Gazette, the chief Government Conservative organ in Canada, to-day comes out fully in favor of the election of Harrison and the defeat of Cleveland on the ground that our form of government gives Canada the better opportunity to pass the tariff treaty and that the latter's unity to Canada and English institutions would perhaps prove fatal to many Canadian schemes.

A Reward of $500

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sauer's Catarrh Remedy for a case of catarrh which they cannot cure. The mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties of this remedy are irrefragable, no cure, by druggists.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

Mitchell Says He Comes Not Here to Fight.

But Many People Would Have Him Meet Dempsey.

General News of the Athletes and Athletic Clubs.

All that is needed for a pugilistic carnival now is the meeting of Charley Mitchell and Jack Dempsey, to sign articles for that $5,000 purse, and a match between Kilrain and some worthy antagonist. Two big fellows and two little fellows—Joe McAuliffe and Peter Jackson, and Tommy Warren and Johnny Havlin are in for it on the Pacific Coast. McCaffrey and Killen are going to battle somewhere in the interior, as will McAuliffe and Myers, probably, while the East is going to have lively, if not exactly first-class contests in the scraps between Dempsey and Donovan, McAuliffe and Hyman, Fallon and Lees, Fallon and McCaffrey, Larkin and Steele, and little Jack Lyman and Joe George. The West will be having rather more than its share, unless Charley Mitchell and Jack Dempsey come together here, which would much more than restore the balance.

An EVENING WORLD reporter had a brief conversation with Mitchell to-day. Asked if he intended to make a match with Dempsey, the young Englishman said: "I have not read anything about the talk that has been going on. I do not consider myself in good condition to make a match, and I do not intend to make one at the present time. I have not made any talk about fighting any one, but whenever I have been called upon to go into the ring I have always been on hand."

Plenty of sporting people refuse Mitchell what others grant is his due on the fight with John L. They make excuses for the big fellow, say the time wasn't called correctly, and think from the way they saw Sullivan perform on Mitchell in Madison Square Garden that they can't have received a correct version of an affair in which Mitchell is credited with having stood off the big fellow.

They forget how different London rules are from those of the beneficent Queensberry, and that Mitchell was improving while Sullivan was losing ground in the four years that lay between the two contests.

London ring rules are Mitchell's choice. He fought under them as a boy with Jack Burke. They are Jack Dempsey's, too, and those who intend placing a little money on the contest, if they fight, should not forget that Dempsey fought that same Jack Burke, who made two draws with Mitchell, one with the bare hands in England, and another with the gloves on in this city, a draw in San Francisco, and good judges say he should have had a decision in his favor.

The horse show will be the sporting and social feature of election week.

Secretary Ruhl of the New York Athletic Club has been ill the past week, but is rapidly coming around all right. He has been stopping at Travers Island during the attack, and some of his clubmates went up there yesterday to see him.

The New York Athletic Club football team and the eleven of the Orange Athletic Club will play a game in the championship series on Election Day. Visitors should take the 11.15 a. m. boat from the foot of Christopher street. The game commences at 2.30 p. m.

Boxing Teacher Austin is especially indignant since he became the father of the fourth American citizen in his family. The newcomer will await the counting of to-morrow's ballot for a name.

The Henry Heyden Athletic Association has elected the following officers: President, Robert Snyder; Vice-President, Gus Schuler; Secretary, Henry Heyden; Treasurer, Gus Schuler; Sergeant-at-Arms, Fred Rosentritt; Captain, Phil Corvius; First Lieutenant, Gus Schuler; Second Lieutenant, Rudolph Baur; Henry Heyden, Phil Michaels, W. Young, Charles Kostobch.

DeWitt Will See the Albany "Express."

ALBANY, Nov. 5.—The President of the State Trades Assembly, Thomas J. Dowling, who is also Master Workman of the District Assembly Knights of Labor, will institute proceedings against the Albany Express for charges printed in its rooster this morning, which were also telegraphed to the New York Tribune.

The article alleged that Cady Herick has paid $100 for his political action. Mr. Dowling is highly respected as an upright man and the charge of the Express is not believed.

To-Morrow at Waverly.

Waverly Park, Nov. 6.—Following are the entries for Tuesday, Nov. 6:

First Race.—Purse $200, of which $50 to be paid for three-year-olds and upward; the winner to be paid $100 less to $200; three-quarters of a mile.—Foster, 120; Belmont, 115; Broughton, 110; Trinidad, 105; Crockett, 105; 50-50, 105.
Second Race.—Purse $200, of which $50 to be paid for three-year-olds and upward; the winner to be paid $100 less to $200; three-quarters of a mile.—Foster, 120; Belmont, 115; Broughton, 110; Trinidad, 105; Crockett, 105; 50-50, 105.
Third Race.—Purse $200, of which $50 to be paid for three-year-olds and upward; the winner to be paid $100 less to $200; three-quarters of a mile.—Foster, 120; Belmont, 115; Broughton, 110; Trinidad, 105; Crockett, 105; 50-50, 105.

Judge Barrett's Opinion of Sheriff Grant.

In sentencing Jasheen, the hoodie Alderman, Judge Barrett said:

BERRY AT THE 'PHONE.

The Mayor's Private Secretary Takes a Bird's-Eye View of the Field on the Eve of Battle.

"Hello, Central, hello! I wish you'd let it be known to all your subscribers that the Old Man (the Mayor), I mean, you know, will shake hands for this day only—with anybody that chooses to call at Hewitt Hall! He's running for office now, you know—and between you and me, Central, I believe it's the Grant men that have got him on the run!"

"Now give me the New Amsterdam Club!" continued Berry.

"Hello, there, New Amsterdam, is the Boss in?"

New Amsterdam—What Boss? There's a powerful lot of County Democracy Bosses flocking in and out here!"

Berry—"Powerful" lot, you say? I believe you, my boy! Power's the one, after all that keeps the others full of power! And he's the one I want to see! Ding-a-ling! Hello, Boss, is that you?"

Boss Power—Yes, it's Ma, Berry, with an accent on the M. How's the Ole Man?

Berry—Very anxious, and very dyspeptic. Boss! I'm just taking a look over the field, the morning before the fray, so as to let him know whether he'd best hush on a bird and a bottle to-day, or an oatmeal cracker and peptonized milk. How's the Irish vote going?

Boss Power—Oh, it's all right—for Grant! You see, what with the flag incident and the Mayor's being an Englishman himself, by heaven, and his general scorn of "the s'facs and O's," and his poorly concealed contempt for our Col. Mike Murphy—well, I think the Irish vote all right—for Grant!

Berry—Well, I'll be greenizzled—degraded, Boss, but you take it pretty cool! Why don't you rub it in on the Ole Man a little harder? But, I say, it's pretty tough, as no mistake, to have Mike Murphy's indictment for theft published just at this time, ain't it? And him on the ticket with Abram Sockologer Hewitt, too, and endorsed by him! How's the Dutch vote?

Boss Power—You mean the Germans, I suppose—been so long in an office where you're accustomed to hearing them spoken of as "the Dutch" that you don't know a German citizen when you see him, eh? Well, it don't matter how you call 'em, since the Ole Man's friend Crosby called 'em immi-grants! They immigrated here a good while ago, but they're immi-GRANTS just the same, ain't they the way they vote?

Berry—Oh, I say now, that's too much! How's the Eyshtalian vote going?

Boss P.—The Eyshtalians? Those fellows that run around with "monks" and "orgs" of course! Ta-ta!!

Guttenberg Entries for To-Morrow.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

NORTH HUDSON DRIVING PARK, N. J., Nov. 6.—Following are the entries at Guttenberg for Tuesday, Nov. 6:

First Race.—Purse $200, for two-year-olds; five-eighths of a mile.
Reputator..... 115
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115
Second Race.—Purse $200, three-quarters of a mile.
Joseph..... 115
Auditor..... 115
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115
Third Race.—Purse $200, three-quarters of a mile.
Johnnie R..... 115
Post..... 115
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115
Fourth Race.—Purse $200, three-quarters of a mile.
Prolet..... 115
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115
Fifth Race.—Purse $200, three-quarters of a mile.
Harper Light..... 115
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115
Sixth Race.—Purse $200, three-quarters of a mile.
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115
Seventh Race.—Purse $200, three-quarters of a mile.
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115
Eighth Race.—Purse $200, three-quarters of a mile.
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115
Ninth Race.—Purse $200, three-quarters of a mile.
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115
Tenth Race.—Purse $200, three-quarters of a mile.
Natick..... 115
Sam R..... 115
Dr. Jekyll..... 115

The Young Men's Democratic Club.

A regular meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club will be held at the rooms of the club, Hoffman House, this Monday evening, Nov. 5. The names of several candidates for nomination to the club, having been favorably passed upon by the committee on admissions, will be reported for action.

Big Registration in Yonkers.

The First District voters, in the Second Ward of Yonkers, are much exercised over the difficulty expected to-morrow in polling the votes of 1,387 registered men within the lawful hours.

An Assignment on 'Change.

William V. Carroll, of the Stock Exchange, made an assignment to-day. His liabilities are small. He has been a member of the Exchange since 1877.

$1,000 to $500

that you can't find an ad to compare with Evening World's Little Fair Ad. Send your ad to Evening World, 100 Nassau St., N. Y. City.

EXTRA A PLOT

The Republicans' Desperate Scheme to Secure Electors.

An Effort to Steal One from Each Doubtful State.

Col. Brice Says 1,000,000 Letters Have Been Sent Out.

Elector George Bechtel the Victim in New York.

A Bold Scheme That Might Seem Harmless at First Glance.

A daring and deep-laid plot to steal a sufficient number of electoral votes to carry the names of Republicans well known in their districts, and all men of considerable personal following in their respective walks of life.

On Staten Island the name chosen as a substitute for Mr. Bechtel's was Read Benedict, while in other parts of the State other names were used, the request being made in each instance that they should be used in place of George Bechtel.

If the scheme worked in anything like the degree hoped for by the Republican managers it would result in a loss of probably several thousand votes to Mr. Bechtel, causing him to run behind one of the Republican electors, who would therefore be chosen.

The same scheme, with trifling modifications, is being worked in other doubtful and Democratic States.

In Indiana, West Virginia, New Jersey, Connecticut, Michigan, Virginia, North Carolina, Nevada and California and several other States the attack is made on one Democratic elector.

The second name on the Democratic ticket is chosen in each instance, and in several States the first name is used in furtherance of another variety of the plot, which is expected to yield good results in the case of careless or ignorant citizens who do not examine their ballots closely.

The modus operandi in the latter instance is to put the name of the first Democratic elector at the head of a ballot and follow it with the names of Republican candidates.

Snafes are also laid for the careless Prohibitionist or labor voter. The first name on the electoral ticket is straight as a die, but the names which follow are those of Republican candidates for the Electoral College.

One of the bogus tickets widely circulated in New Jersey is headed "Regular Prohibition ticket," on which first appears the name of Gardner R. Colby, of Essex, the genuine nominee of the third party. The other names, which include Alexander G. Cattell, Richard S. Leaming, John P. Haines and Hugh W. Adams, are those of the candidates of the Republican party.

One of the consequences of the success of this scheme in any State would be a fierce contest on the part of the Republican electors as to who should take the place of the scratched candidate.

Each of the Republicans having the same vote, a long drawn legal battle might be kept up, the effect of which would be to leave the vote of the State in doubt for an indefinite period.

Such are the details of this bold plot on the part of the Republican managers. Its effect, they fondly hope, will be to cut out electoral votes from each of ten or a dozen States and so secure another lease of power.

The reason why in New York State the name of Elector George Bechtel was selected is that he is not a member of the Brewery Masters' Association and the pasters have been sent to all the brewers in that organization.

Secretary A. E. Seifert, of the Brewers' Exchange said to an EVENING WORLD reporter:

"The first we knew of this plot was contained in a letter from Charles F. Heimer, Secretary of the Rochester Brewing Company. All our members received the pasters, and many sent them to us. At once issued a circular letter returning the envelopes and warning all our people as follows:

"This is a Republican trick. Please inform all to destroy the pasters, and under no circumstances to comply with this suggestion.
Col. Calvin S. Brice learned of the plot this morning. He said to an EVENING WORLD reporter:

"The Republicans have issued 1,000,000 of these tickets, and have circulated them throughout the State.
"We had word from Albany this morning that the scheme will be tried there and have learned enough from other sources to know their plans.
"It is a desperate measure, but is one which I think will prove fruitless.
"We have 204 electoral votes which the Republican bosses concede to us. Now, you can readily see that if they gain three it will not help them out, but if they gain four it will be all they want.
"I understand that these requests to voters to which you refer are sent out with the hope of getting Democratic Electors scratched, and thereby allow four Republican Electors to run ahead of their ticket in this State.
"It is a small straw to grab at now, and will not work."
Secretary McClellan, of the National Democratic Committee, said:
"The plot if worked properly would undoubtedly gain the Republicans electoral votes. It has been tried before, but never with effect, and I don't think it will have any effect this time.
"Still, it could be made to help the Republicans out if it was managed with great skill. We have notified the State Committee about it, so they will be prepared to frustrate it."
Judge Beriah Wilkins said: "It is an old

names of Republicans well known in their districts, and all men of considerable personal following in their respective walks of life.

On Staten Island the name chosen as a substitute for Mr. Bechtel's was Read Benedict, while in other parts of the State other names were used, the request being made in each instance that they should be used in place of George Bechtel.

If the scheme worked in anything like the degree hoped for by the Republican managers it would result in a loss of probably several thousand votes to Mr. Bechtel, causing him to run behind one of the Republican electors, who would therefore be chosen.

The same scheme, with trifling modifications, is being worked in other doubtful and Democratic States.

In Indiana, West Virginia, New Jersey, Connecticut, Michigan, Virginia, North Carolina, Nevada and California and several other States the attack is made on one Democratic elector.

The second name on the Democratic ticket is chosen in each instance, and in several States the first name is used in furtherance of another variety of the plot, which is expected to yield good results in the case of careless or ignorant citizens who do not examine their ballots closely.

The modus operandi in the latter instance is to put the name of the first Democratic elector at the head of a ballot and follow it with the names of Republican candidates.

Snafes are also laid for the careless Prohibitionist or labor voter. The first name on the electoral ticket is straight as a die, but the names which follow are those of Republican candidates for the Electoral College.

One of the bogus tickets widely circulated in New Jersey is headed "Regular Prohibition ticket," on which first appears the name of Gardner R. Colby, of Essex, the genuine nominee of the third party. The other names, which include Alexander G. Cattell, Richard S. Leaming, John P. Haines and Hugh W. Adams, are those of the candidates of the Republican party.

One of the consequences of the success of this scheme in any State would be a fierce contest on the part of the Republican electors as to who should take the place of the scratched candidate.

Each of the Republicans having the same vote, a long drawn legal battle might be kept up, the effect of which would be to leave the vote of the State in doubt for an indefinite period.

Such are the details of this bold plot on the part of the Republican managers. Its effect, they fondly hope, will be to cut out electoral votes from each of ten or a dozen States and so secure another lease of power.

The reason why in New York State the name of Elector George Bechtel was selected is that he is not a member of the Brewery Masters' Association and the pasters have been sent to all the brewers in that organization.

Secretary A. E. Seifert, of the Brewers' Exchange said to an EVENING WORLD reporter:

"The first we knew of this plot was contained in a letter from Charles F. Heimer, Secretary of the Rochester Brewing Company. All our members received the pasters, and many sent them to us. At once issued a circular letter returning the envelopes and warning all our people as follows:

"This is a Republican trick. Please inform all to destroy the pasters, and under no circumstances to comply with this suggestion.
Col. Calvin S. Brice learned of the plot this morning. He said to an EVENING WORLD reporter:

"The Republicans have issued 1,000,000 of these tickets, and have circulated them throughout the State.
"We had word from Albany this morning that the scheme will be tried there and have learned enough from other sources to know their plans.
"It is a desperate measure, but is one which I think will prove fruitless.
"We have 204 electoral votes which the Republican bosses concede to us. Now, you can readily see that if they gain three it will not help them out, but if they gain four it will be all they want.
"I understand that these requests to voters to which you refer are sent out with the hope of getting Democratic Electors scratched, and thereby allow four Republican Electors to run ahead of their ticket in this State.
"It is a small straw to grab at now, and will not work."
Secretary McClellan, of the National Democratic Committee, said:
"The plot if worked properly would undoubtedly gain the Republicans electoral votes. It has been tried before, but never with effect, and I don't think it will have any effect this time.
"Still, it could be made to help the Republicans out if it was managed with great skill. We have notified the State Committee about it, so they will be prepared to frustrate it."
Judge Beriah Wilkins said: "It is an old

names of Republicans well known in their districts, and all men of considerable personal following in their respective walks of life.

On Staten Island the name chosen as a substitute for Mr. Bechtel's was Read Benedict, while in other parts of the State other names were used, the request being made in each instance that they should be used in place of George Bechtel.

If the scheme worked in anything like the degree hoped for by the Republican managers it would result in a loss of probably several thousand votes to Mr. Bechtel, causing him to run behind one of the Republican electors, who would therefore be chosen.

The same scheme, with trifling modifications, is being worked in other doubtful and Democratic States.

In Indiana, West Virginia, New Jersey, Connecticut, Michigan, Virginia, North Carolina, Nevada and California and several other States the attack is made on one Democratic elector.

The second name on the Democratic ticket is chosen in each instance, and in several States the first name is used in furtherance of another variety of the plot, which is expected to yield good results in the case of careless or ignorant citizens who do not examine their ballots closely.

The modus operandi in the latter instance is to put the name of the first Democratic elector at the head of a ballot and follow it with the names of Republican candidates.

Snafes are also laid for the careless Prohibitionist or labor voter. The first name on the electoral ticket is straight as a die, but the names which follow are those of Republican candidates for the Electoral College.

One of the bogus tickets widely circulated in New Jersey is headed "Regular Prohibition ticket," on which first appears the name of Gardner R. Colby, of Essex, the genuine nominee of the third party. The other names, which include Alexander G. Cattell, Richard S. Leaming, John P. Haines and Hugh W. Adams, are those of the candidates of the Republican party.

One of the consequences of the success of this scheme in any State would be a fierce contest on the part of the Republican electors as to who should take the place of the scratched candidate.

Each of the Republicans having the same vote, a long drawn legal battle might be kept up, the effect of which would be to leave the vote of the State in doubt for an indefinite period.

Such are the details of this bold plot on the part of the Republican managers. Its effect, they fondly hope, will be to cut out electoral votes from each of ten or a dozen States and so secure another lease of power.

The reason why in New York State the name of Elector George Bechtel was selected is that he is not a member of the Brewery Masters' Association and the pasters have been sent to all the brewers in that organization.

Secretary A. E. Seifert, of the Brewers' Exchange said to an EVENING WORLD reporter:

"The first we knew of this plot was contained in a letter from Charles F. Heimer, Secretary of the Rochester Brewing Company. All our members received the pasters, and many sent them to us. At once issued a circular letter returning the envelopes and warning all our people as follows:

names of Republicans well known in their districts, and all men of considerable personal following in their respective walks of life.

On Staten Island the name chosen as a substitute for Mr. Bechtel's was Read Benedict, while in other parts of the State other names were used, the request being made in each instance that they should be used in place of George Bechtel.

If the scheme worked in anything like the degree hoped for by the Republican managers it would result in a loss of probably several thousand votes to Mr. Bechtel, causing him to run behind one of the Republican electors, who would therefore be chosen.

The same scheme, with trifling modifications, is being worked in other doubtful and Democratic States.

In Indiana, West Virginia, New Jersey, Connecticut, Michigan, Virginia, North Carolina, Nevada and California and several other States the attack is made on one Democratic elector.

The second name on the Democratic ticket is chosen in each instance, and in several States the first name is used in furtherance of another variety of the plot, which is expected to yield good results in the case of careless or ignorant citizens who do not examine their ballots closely.

The modus operandi in the latter instance is to put the name of the first Democratic elector at the head of a ballot and follow it with the names of Republican candidates.

Snafes are also laid for the careless Prohibitionist or labor voter. The first name on the electoral ticket is straight as a die, but the names which follow are those of Republican candidates for the Electoral College.

One of the bogus tickets widely circulated in New Jersey is headed "Regular Prohibition ticket," on which first appears the name of Gardner R. Colby, of Essex, the genuine nominee of the third party. The other names, which include Alexander G. Cattell, Richard S. Leaming, John P. Haines and Hugh W. Adams, are those of the candidates of the Republican party.

One of the consequences of the success of this scheme in any State would be a fierce contest on the part of the Republican electors as to who should take the place of the scratched candidate.

Each of the Republicans having the same vote, a long drawn legal battle might be kept up, the effect of which would be to leave the vote of the State in doubt for an indefinite period.

Such are the details of this bold plot on the part of the Republican managers. Its effect, they fondly hope, will be to cut out electoral votes from each of ten or a dozen States and so secure another lease of power.

The reason why in New York State the name of Elector George Bechtel was selected is that he is not a member of the Brewery Masters' Association and the pasters have been sent to all the brewers in that organization.

Secretary A. E. Seifert, of the Brewers' Exchange said to an EVENING WORLD reporter:

"The first we knew of this plot was contained in a letter from Charles F. Heimer, Secretary of the Rochester Brewing Company. All our members received the pasters, and many sent them to us. At once issued a circular letter returning the envelopes and warning all our people as follows: